IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear husband and daddy, W. T. Childers, who left us one year ago today, Jan. 10, 1958.

Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they so little know the sorrow
That's in our hearts concealed.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thoughts to reach.

They say time heals all sorrow
And helps us to forget;
But so far has only proved,
How much we miss him yet.

In FASHION now

It may seem like the same old story, but color will be the thing for spring. You can forget the safe neutrals, the little black town dress or the classic dark blue and buy yourself a spring outfit in a combination of the new "wild" colors.

The color combinations are unusual but most attractive and startling and you won't have any trouble finding a combination that does something for you. For example, if blue is your color, choose an outfit that makes the most of a becoming color of blue. You may find your color combined with greens, other blues and a big favorite will be bright primary colors combined with primary secondary colors with a touch of neutral background to hold the whole thing together.

You will find yourself in color from hat to heel. The shoes will be really outstanding in the variety of color and color combinations. The lower heel will continue to be fashion. Bright colored gloves will complete many eye-catching outfits.

Many of the hats tend to set on the back of the head and all have a youthful look about them. The look that promises to be most outstanding is soft and draped without a lot of trim in the way of ribbon, feathers, etc.

Make-believe jewels will be fashioned into a flower garden of color. Rhinestones give way to stones of equal glitter but more color.

Make-up will keep up with the trend to wild colors. There are to be several never-before-seen colors for nail polish on the market. Lipstick shades are brighter and more glowing than ever before. Eye makeup will be more necessary than ever before unless you want your eyes to be lost in the blast of new color.

Chicago Fire Findings
Chicago.- Three definite findings —sneak smoking, delay in sounding an alarm, and combustible materials in a stairwell—stood out in the inquest into the tragic fire at Our Lady of the Angels School on December 1.

The most important, said coroner Walter McCarron, was a report of sneak smoking in the school just before the fire.

Eighty-nine children and three nuns perished in the blaze.

Truman Plans Lectures
New York.- Former President Truman has announced he will give a series of lectures on the Presidency this year at Columbia University.

Building Plans Offered At VPI For Poultrymen
Many Virginia poultrymen are taking a second look at the conditions of their present buildings, and are reconsidering the features of new buildings being planned.

G. D. Kite, agricultural engineer at VPI, says this increased interest in improved houses and facilities for poultry is a natural result of expansion programs for egg and broiler production in the state.

An answer for many poultrymen may be in the new VPI plans for pole-type broiler and laying houses. Kite says that to provide the most suitable house for layers or broilers it is necessary to consider the chicken needs, and the facilities that will most nearly meet those needs. The new plans were designed on that basis. Poultrymen can contact their county agents for further information about the plans.

AHRENS - ALVIS

Liberty Baptist Church on New Year's Day at four o'clock in the afternoon was the scene of the marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Alvis, daughter of Mrs. Mildred O'Brien Alvis, of Appomattox, to Robert Warren Ahrens, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ahrens, of Long Island, New York. The chancel of the church was decorated with tall cathedral candles, magnolia foliage and baskets of white gladioli. The Reverend Charles Addington officiated.

Miss Mary Walker Evans, organist, provided a program of nuptial music. Another cousin, Miss Phoebe O'Brien, of Washington, sang "Through the Years" and "O Perfect Love" preceding the ceremony, and as a benediction, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, E. Louis Dahl, of Farmville. She wore a gown of lace and net over taffeta with a veil of rose point, hand-made Brussels lace. Her veil fell from a cap of Brussels lace seeded with pearls. She carried a prayer book, topped with a white orchid.

The sister of the bride, Mrs. Lawrence Burton, of Stuart, Virginia, was matron of honor. Miss Patricia Hutton, of Stuart, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Other attendants were Miss Nancy Miller, of Lynchburg and Miss Mary Ann Schlotthauber, cousin of the groom, from Long Island, New York. The attendants wore gowns of jade green taffeta, made with empire waistline, and large bow at the back of the low V-neckline; they wore bandeaux of white fur and carried white nosegays.

Willard A. Irving, III, of Rustburg, was the groom's best man. Ushers were Allen Louis Dahl, of Farmville, Walter C. Flagg, Jr., and Thomas M. Shelton, of Richmond.

Candles, magnolia foliage, white gladioli and other flowers decorated the home of the bride's mother where the reception was held. Mrs. William Haller Copenhaver, of Richmond, presided at the punch bowl; Mrs. R. Banks Frazier, of Kenbridge, served at the cake table.

For her going-away outfit, the bride wore a suit of beige with brown accessories.

The couple will live in Richmond, Virginia.

Miss Alvis is a graduate of Mary Washington College, of the University of Virginia, and is at present teaching in the schools of Richmond. Mr. Ahrens is a graduate of the University of Virginia and is now employed in Richmond.
